

Network Security Policy

All network traffic must pass through a firewall with approved rule sets.

Wireless networks must use WPA3 encryption.

Network segmentation must be applied to isolate sensitive systems.

Vulnerability scans must be conducted monthly on all network devices.

Unauthorized devices must not be connected to the corporate network.

All remote connections must use encrypted tunnels such as VPN or TLS 1.2+.